

MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING

Overview and Contact Information

The Master of Arts in Teaching program (M.A.T.) is an accelerated gender-inclusive teacher education program for aspiring Early Childhood, Elementary, Middle, Secondary, English Language Learners and Moderate Disabilities teachers. This flexible, one- or two-year M.A.T. – taken fully online or in a hybrid model – includes an innovative curriculum with a strong commitment to social justice and equity, a unique collaboration with EL Education, personalized advising, and initial teacher licensure in over 25 areas, including:

- Biology (8-12)
- Chemistry (8-12)
- Dance (All)
- Early Childhood (PreK-2)
- Earth and Space Science (8-12)
- Elementary (1-6)
- English (5-12)
- English as a Second Language (ESL)/English Language Learners (ELL) (PreK-6; 5-12)
- Foreign Language (5-12)
- General Science (5-8)
- History (5-12)
- Mathematics (5-8; 8-12)
- Middle school: Humanities (5-8)
- Middle school: Mathematics/Science (5-8)
- Music: Vocal/Instrumental/General (All)
- Physics (8-12)
- Social Science (5-12)
- Teacher of Students with Moderate Disabilities (PreK-8; 5-12)
- Theater (All)
- Visual Arts (PreK-8; 5-12)

Through the M.A.T. program, we also offer additional licensure options in:

- New level/subject area
- English as Second Language/English Language Learners (PreK-6, 5-12)
- Special Education/Moderate disabilities (PreK-8, 5-12)

These additional licensure (<http://catalog.mtholyoke.edu/PaGE/programs/add-on-licensure/>) options are specifically designed to provide opportunities for current students pursuing initial licensure or teachers with the appropriate licensure to earn and independently apply for an additional license.

Students in the M.A.T. program receive personalized advising to help them reach their academic and career goals. They work closely with a network of professionals including faculty advisors, supervising teachers, EL Education mentors, and a variety of content area experts.

Upon successful completion of the program, students are awarded the Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

Learning Goals

Graduates of the Master of Arts in Teaching at Mount Holyoke College will develop the ability to do the following:

- Write and adapt well-developed lesson/unit plans to reach a range of learners in the PK12 classroom.
- Design and administer a variety of student assessments, analyze student performance and growth, and use data to improve instruction and learning.
- Integrate and apply research, theory, and pedagogy to inform instruction and interactions with students.
- Have and apply insights on their teaching and learning, both individually and with colleagues, to improve practice and student learning.

Professional Standards for Teachers

Graduates of the Master of Arts in Teaching at Mount Holyoke College will demonstrate a range of professional skills that respond to a deep understanding and application of the knowledge, skills and dispositions found in the Guidelines for the Professional Standards for Teachers (<https://www.doe.mass.edu/edprep/resources/guidelines-advisories/>):

- Curriculum, Planning and Assessment: Promotes the learning and growth of all students by providing high quality and coherent instruction, designing and administering authentic and meaningful student assessments, analyzing student performance and growth data, using this data to improve instruction, providing students with constructive feedback on an on-going basis and continuously refining learning objectives.

- Teaching All Students: Promotes the learning and growth of all students through instructional practices that establish high expectations, create a safe and effective classroom environment and demonstrate cultural proficiency.
- Family and Community Engagement: Promotes the learning and growth of all students through effective partnerships with families, caregivers, community members and organizations.
- Professional Culture standard: Promotes the learning and growth of all students through ethical, culturally proficient, skilled and collaborative practice.

Curriculum and Requirements

Coursework for the M.A.T. is delivered in four sessions: summer, fall, January, and spring. Students are expected to maintain a B grade in all courses.

While the M.A.T. is designed to be a continuous one year program, part-time students can complete requirements at their own pace over two years, although they will eventually need to complete the program's capstone: a full-time, semester-long teaching practicum. Students will work with an advisor to design an approved plan to complete program requirements.

Admission

All applicants must have:

- Completed a bachelor's degree prior to beginning the M.A.T. program.
- An undergraduate major—or demonstrated equivalent subject area knowledge—in desired teaching discipline.
- A passing score on the appropriate Massachusetts Test for Educator Licensure (MTEL). Those who have not yet taken the MTEL are still able to apply to the M.A.T. program. Further details on the timing of the necessary tests required for the particular license will be provided when the applicant meets with the program advisor.
- An interview with the admissions committee.

Those who apply to this program generally have a 3.0 undergraduate GPA or above.

To apply to the M.A.T. program, prospective students complete the M.A.T. application and upload all supporting materials via the online application (https://gradadmission.mtholyoke.edu/apply/?\_ga=2.203493840.1115798967.1659984764-1556106209.1601496778), except official transcripts which need to be mailed in to:

Amy Asadoorian
Professional and Graduate Education
Mount Holyoke College
50 College Street
South Hadley, MA 01075

To secure their place in the program, admitted applicants will pay a non-refundable $125 deposit that will be applied as a credit to their first term's bill.

Financing

Please see Graduate Tuition, Fees, Financing, and Financial Aid (<http://catalog.mtholyoke.edu/PaGE/financial-policies/>) for further information.

Course Offerings

This course listing contains all graduate courses with subjects X.EDUC, X.ELL, and X.SPED including those intended for other graduate programs. Courses from other subjects, such as X.MATH, may also apply to your program. Please contact your advisor if you are unsure of courses that are appropriate for your program.

X.EDUC-409 Schools, Schooling, and Society: an Introduction to Education and Social Policy

Credits: 2

The course familiarizes students with the historical foundations of public education, current movements in education reforms such as Race to the Top, Common Core Standards, Every Student Succeeds Act, and theories of change. The course examines the social policies and catalysts that have caused transformation in society and public education and includes contemporary events. In keeping with Massachusetts Department of Education mandates for approved licensure programs, the course provides the foundational readings to prepare teachers for work in a diverse society. Topics include knowledge of curriculum; knowledge of learners; knowledge of educational goals, knowledge of social/cultural contexts; and pedagogical content knowledge.

R. Hornsby

Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.

X.EDUC-411 Policy Fluency: Current Issues in Education

Spring. Credits: 3 - 4

In this learning experience, teacher leaders will deepen their understanding of how to share, spread, and scale their practices and convictions to impact the teaching profession beyond their classroom walls. Participants will engage in simulated project pitches, reflective writing, drafting and revising a blog post, and conversations with guest speakers working to shape policy and practice across the country. This course is intended for teacher leaders in both public and independent school contexts.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

J. Minkel

Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.

Notes: Those who want to learn more about current issues in education with a systems lens in order to scale future initiatives should enroll in the 3-credit option. For those ready to apply the course content to a specific project, the 4-credit option includes an action component built around implementing that initiative.

X.EDUC-413 Leading Colleagues Using Research: Bridging the Gap Between Research and Practice

Based on Domain 2 of the Teacher Leader Model Standards, this class helps build the skills, knowledge, and dispositions teacher leaders need to support colleagues in using the latest research and data to improve practice and student learning. Topics we will explore include types of research, examining the research process, the skills teacher leaders need to lead colleagues in using research to improve practice, research competencies, action research, data collection and analysis, how research makes instruction intentional and systematic, and how it allows us to make meaning out of numbers.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

The department

Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.

X.EDUC-414 Research Design for EducatorsCredits: 1*

This course provides an introduction to research methodology and design in applied educational contexts. Topics covered in this course include: ethical considerations in educational research, how to conduct comprehensive literature searches, measurement and interpretation of qualitative and quantitative data, and research report writing. Through this course, students will explore the research process from hypothesis development and literature review to publication. At the conclusion of this course, students will be prepared to develop and incorporate the elements of effective research designs into their own research projects.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

J. Holland

X.EDUC-418 Seminar in Public and Non-Public SchoolsNot Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2*

This seminar course will examine the legal, social, and cultural factors that shape the various types of schooling in America. Students will have the opportunity to learn about and discuss the history, curriculum and teaching methods, role of various stakeholders, and current debates surrounding various types of schooling. Throughout the course, students will engage in critical analysis of various public and non-public schooling models and will be encouraged to develop their own perspectives on the role of education in American society. The seminar format will facilitate discussion, and students will be expected to contribute actively to class discussions and written assignments. Note: Types of schooling discussed may shift each semester that the course is offered.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

J. Coes

Restrictions: This course is limited to Teacher Leadership MAT students only
Notes: Repeatable for credit.

X.EDUC-419 Independent Schools: New Teachers SeminarNot Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2*

This course helps new independent school teachers answer questions that all teachers ask themselves on a daily basis: How do we best serve our students and their learning needs, across the multiple dimensions of learning styles, ethnicity, race, gender and class? As we design an experience to welcome and engage all of our students, how do we also nourish and sustain ourselves in this important work? The course includes cohort meetings as well as time for reflection, designing lesson plans, exploring how we organize our classrooms, and discussing how we support ourselves and each other.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

The department

X.EDUC-420 Human Development: 'Child and Adolescent Development'Spring. Credits: 2*

In this course students will develop a foundational framework of knowledge about physical, cognitive and social/emotional development that can inform their teaching practice in the classroom. Through individualized exploration, students will have opportunities to delve into the study of the age group that they intend to teach, and the class will discuss specific topics particularly relevant to education, such as language development, gender, moral development, the nature of intelligence, and motivation. By the end of this course, students should be conversant in developmental theory and able to use it to support the pedagogical choices they will make as educators.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

L. Perroncel

X.EDUC-422 Practicum Seminar on Teaching and Learning: Early Childhood and Elementary EducationSpring. Credits: 4*

The Integrated Methods Seminar focuses on supporting and building on key aspects of the intensive full-time supervised student teaching experience. Teacher candidates learn how to develop integrated curriculum units, address complex behavioral and management issues with increasing sophistication, delve more deeply into theory and practice, develop peer coaching and mentoring skills, develop habits of reflection, and prepare for job interviews. Additionally, there is an emphasis on social studies content and pedagogy. Specifically, students will be studying content of a meaningful elementary and early childhood social studies curriculum and devising lessons and units that address multiple learning needs, planning effective and aligned assessments, infusing best practices, and exploring integration opportunities. Linking critical learning from their work in social justice to issues of instructional equity and practice in the classroom is also part of the Seminar this semester.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

C. Swift

Restrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students only

X.EDUC-423 Student Teaching in Early Childhood and Elementary SchoolsSpring. Credits: 10*

Students participate in full-time student teaching in early childhood and elementary classrooms for 15 weeks. During this semester-long field-based placement, students hone classroom management skills, implement an extended integrated curriculum unit, deliver lessons in all content areas, and develop a wide range of assessment skills. The practicum culminates in two weeks of Lead Teaching, during which the student is responsible for managing all aspects of the classroom program. Students work with classroom teachers and program supervisors to address Professional Teaching Standards as required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

R. Hornsby

Restrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students only

Advisory: Students may only register for X.EDUC-423 if concurrently taking X.EDUC-422.

Notes: 5 days a week for 15 weeks full-time student teaching in school site (includes Mount Holyoke College's spring break). This course is graded on a credit/no credit basis.

X.EDUC-424 Internship in Educational SettingsNot Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 4 - 10*

Graduate students undertake a supervised internship from January through June in an educational setting comprised of up to 600 hours. This would be a supervised, mentored experience, and tailored to the hours of the student, approved by a faculty member within the Professional and Graduate Education department. Evaluation of performance is determined by on-site visits, written assignments, as well as supervisor and mentor evaluations. Successful completion of the course is verified based on satisfactory submission of a final product/portfolio and presentation that demonstrates an integration of knowledge and skills gained through their program of study and internship experience.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

R. Hornsby, C. Swift

Advisory: For graduate students who will not be pursuing licensure.

X.EDUC-427 Practicum 1: Professional Development and MentoringFall. Credits: 3*

Participants survey best practices in instructional coaching and professional development and implement these practices in their educational contexts. Topics include: cultivating positive mentoring/coaching relationships, observation protocols, developing and facilitating andragogically-sound professional learning, coaching for emotional resilience, and assessing professional learning. Participants actively apply skills in their own settings with specialized coaching from the course instructor and create a professional learning experience and/or approach to instructional coaching that is designed to meet the needs of students and teachers in their unique learning community.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementE. Kuypers, S. RegnerRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.X.EDUC-428 Critical Literacy Through Multicultural Children's Literature: Becoming Critically LiterateSpring. Credits: 2

In this course, we will discuss sociopolitical issues reflected in children's literature (i.e., gender, race, class, sexuality, ability, etc.) and read across genres, themes, and perspectives. Teacher candidates will develop analytical practices to examine books' words and images, ask complex questions about power and language, and consider counternarratives through critical multicultural analytical practices. Teacher candidates will write text reflections, reader responses, and create a text set centered on a social issue of choice. In addition, teacher candidates will reflect on becoming critically literate educators and how a critical orientation to reading and teaching impacts their beliefs and practices.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementC. SwiftRestrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students onlyX.EDUC-429 Using Art for Educational AdvancementNot Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2

This course focuses on using arts as a catalyst for change inside and outside of the classroom. It supports educators in deepening their pedagogical techniques using arts, and it supports leaders outside the classroom in exploring how to use art beyond the classroom to influence system change. Participants will engage in discussion around critical issues in education and problem solve for such issues using various forms of art. Techniques to be explored may include, but are not limited to: literature, visual arts, the graphic arts, the decorative arts, and performing arts. By the end of this course, participants will have a portfolio of resources that can be used in their areas of practice.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementThe departmentRestrictions: This course is limited to Teacher Leadership MAT students only Instructor permission required.X.EDUC-430 The Process of Teaching and Learning in Secondary and Middle SchoolsFall. Credits: 4

This course is intended to help prepare prospective secondary and middle school teachers for effective classroom instruction. The focus of this course is to explore a range of philosophies of education and existing classroom practices. The course uses the current educational landscape in order for teacher candidates to examine culturally relevant teaching and learning practices, teaching in multicultural settings, establishing the classroom climate, choosing instructional approaches, and attending to the needs of a range of learners.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementOther Attribute(s): Community-Based LearningL. PerroncelRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.X.EDUC-431 Student Teaching in Secondary and Middle SchoolsSpring. Credits: 10

Students participate in full-time student teaching in middle or secondary classrooms for 15 weeks. During this semester-long field-based placement, students hone classroom management skills, design and implement curriculum, and develop a wide range of assessment skills. Students work with classroom teachers and college supervisors to address Professional Teaching Standards as required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementR. HornsbyRestrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students onlyAdvisory: Students may only register for X.EDUC-431 if concurrently taking X.EDUC-433.Notes: 5 days a week for 15 weeks; full-time student teaching in school sites (includes Mount Holyoke College's spring break). Credit/no credit grading.X.EDUC-433 Practicum Seminar on Teaching and Learning: Middle and Secondary EducationSpring. Credits: 4

This weekly seminar provides students with opportunities to design and discuss case studies involving adolescents in middle and secondary school settings, review researched-based models of instruction, and classroom management, and engage in dialogue with professionals regarding numerous aspects of teaching and student learning. Additional topics covered include reviewing the legal obligations of teachers, addressing the needs of students with disabilities, English language learners, and developing effective communication between home and school.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementC. SwiftRestrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students only

X.EDUC-436 Exceptional Learners Internship IFall and Spring. Credits: 1 - 4*

Students pursuing an additional license are expected to complete a supervised field experience of at least 150 hours in an approved public school classroom within the licensure area pursued. Placements may be located within or outside of western Massachusetts. In addition to the field experience component, students attend regular course meetings. Reading and writing assignments are an opportunity to learn more about tracking student development, advocacy, utilizing action research as a tool for professional development and collaboration, and leveraging an additional license on the job market.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementR. HornsbyRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.Notes: Credit/no credit grading.X.EDUC-437 Advanced Practicum: Professional Development and MentoringNot Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2

This course is the culmination of The Institute for Instructional Coaching. Participants reflect, refine, and expand upon the professional learning sessions they have developed, as well as their instructional coaching practice, while expanding their learning experience to enhance the impact in their context. Topics in this course include: developing systematic professional learning opportunities for new and experienced educators in a given setting, professional collaboration and co-facilitation, enhancing professional leadership through system-wide programming. Participants complete the institute as experts in ongoing, embedded, and personalized professional learning.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementE. Kuypers, S. RegnerRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.X.EDUC-441 Fostering a Collaborative Culture for LearningCredits: 2

This course is centered around Domain One of the Teacher Leader Model Standards, with an emphasis on creating cultures in our schools that support educator development and student learning. Modules include defining teacher leadership, exploring formal and informal teacher leadership roles, adult learning theory, facilitation of group learning and discussion, mitigating difficult discussions and building consensus, organizational change and the change process, building trust, and other skills to create inclusive cultures for professional growth (and student learning!).

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementN. GardnerRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.X.EDUC-449 Equity and Social Justice: A Teacher's RoleCredits: 2

In this course, participants will learn to address issues of social justice seamlessly and incorporate social justice into the design of their learning environments. This will be accomplished in three steps: First, participants will be assigned a self-awareness partner to process socialization around social issues. Second, participants will produce narratives about their social justice development. Finally, participants will create action plans that will create learning environments that don't shut down dialogues about difference, but open them up. Participants will then take this new learning and self-awareness and apply it to education systems outside of their classroom.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementJ. Coes, J. MinkelX.EDUC-450 Social-Emotional Learning and Development: Foundations of Social, Emotional, and Academic DevelopmentSpring. Credits: 2

In the course, educators will learn the foundational principles of social and emotional learning through an accelerated survey of foundations of SEL strategies in pedagogy, practice, and instructional leadership. They will explore how SEL advances educational equity and personal student growth by establishing affirming learning environments that feature trusting and collaborative relationships, rigorous and meaningful curriculum and instruction, and ongoing evaluation. Educators will examine the clear connection and the roles of the school in students' emotional and academic success. Educators will build a strong foundation in social emotional learning that includes equity-based, culturally responsive, and trauma sensitive practices through the use of case studies examples, personal reflection, and the building of resources for community use.

WrightRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.Advisory: This course is for Prince George's County students only.X.EDUC-451 Social-Emotional Learning and Development: Pedagogy and PracticeSpring. Credits: 2*

In this course, educators will explore ways to put the foundations of social and emotional learning (SEL) into practice. This exploration includes the examination of available resources, evaluation of ways in which SEL may be built into their current curriculum and instruction, and strategic development of collaboration and connections with educators, families, and other stakeholders on issues related to social and emotional learning. Educators will identify areas of strength and opportunity of the social and emotional well-being of students, reflect on their own social and emotional well-being, and create a plan of action for their own growth and the growth and empowerment of students.

Educators serve in multiple roles to support students in their academic, extracurricular, and, in some cases, dorm lives. This course will provide an overview of the following: school counseling principles, widely adopted models of comprehensive developmental counseling curricula, social-emotional learning, approaches in multicultural counseling, and mentoring students on academic and professional issues. We will also address identification, prevention, intervention, and crisis management strategies for topics including: relationships, mental health, trauma, and substance use/abuse. Students will explore how to analyze various types of student performance data to inform academic and non-academic programming.

X.EDUC-452AT Topics in Social-Emotional Learning and Development: 'Coaching and Athletics'Not Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2*

Educators in public and independent schools often serve in multiple roles, including as coaches for competitive and intramural sports. This class will provide an overview of issues related to supporting the student athlete, including the following: administering sport programs, principles of effective coaching, promoting and coaching the college-bound student athlete, compliance with governing bodies in sport, equity in athletics, team-building, event management, and sport safety.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementJ. RiversRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.X.EDUC-452NT Topics in Social-Emotional Learning and Development: 'Introduction to Social and Emotional Learning'Credits: 2

In this course, educators will engage with the principles of social and emotional learning (SEL) with a lens on how they can integrate these concepts into their work as teachers: building classroom community, teaching students to resolve their own conflicts, and helping their students develop compassion for others including those of different identities and backgrounds than their own. In relation to advocacy and teacher leadership, they will also explore some of the opposition and barriers to SEL, as well as effective arguments in support of SEL at a policy and "systems" level. Educators will strengthen their instruction and advocacy in equity-based, culturally responsive, and trauma-sensitive practices explored through case studies, instructional strategies, reflection, and development of a portfolio that applies their new knowledge to their specific teaching context.

X.EDUC-481 Internship in Education AdministrationFall. Credits: 2 - 6*

Graduate students undertake an internship of up to 500 hours in an educational setting under the supervision of an PreK-12 school administrator from January through June. This would be a supervised, mentored experience, that is tailored to the student's needs and interests, and approved by a faculty member within the Professional and Graduate Education department. Evaluation of performance is determined by on-site visits, written assignments, as well as supervisor and mentor evaluations. Successful completion of the course is verified based on satisfactory submission of a final product/portfolio and presentation that demonstrates an integration of knowledge and skills gained through their program of study and internship experience.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementJ. MaherRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.Notes: Repeatable to a maximum of 6 credits.X.EDUC-489 Catapult! Capstone CourseSpring. Credits: 2 - 6

This course is designed to catapult students' professional and personal leadership journey to the next level. It serves as an idea incubator, helping give teacher leaders the support and direction they need to propel themselves forward in their work and launch teacher-created ideas to improve education for all students. In this class, graduate students will demonstrate and document the impact of their knowledge gained throughout their journey at Mount Holyoke College. Students will choose a domain of the Teacher Leader Model Standards to focus their capstone work, then they will choose one of four pathways for the semester: a research study, a teacher-created project, a teacher leader internship, or National Board candidacy. They will apply their skill and knowledge under a teacher leader coach, who will support them and engage in weekly reflective practice of their teacher leadership work. At the end of the semester, teachers will complete and share a portfolio that demonstrates how their experiential learning experience has enhanced their practice as a leader and a teacher leader.

X.ELL-403 Research in Teaching English Language LearnersCredits: 3*

This course introduces teacher candidates to the sociocultural context of schooling and examines current research in the field of ELL teaching and learning. The course will support teacher candidates in developing an orientation toward teaching as inquiry, as well as the ability to read and conduct classroom research. Critical qualitative methods (e.g., ethnography, case study, action research) will be considered and teacher research in the ELL classroom will be emphasized. Teacher candidates will develop and complete a qualitative inquiry project that investigates an aspect of language teaching or learning of interest to them.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementA. LopezX.ELL-406 Introduction to Teaching English Language LearnersNot Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2

This introductory course examines theories and issues related to multilingual education and teaching English language learners in the United States today. Specifically, students will be introduced to approaches and pedagogies that support teaching linguistically and culturally diverse learners in the PK-12 setting and the places where second language acquisition theory and practice intersect. In addition, this course will prepare participants to sit for the Massachusetts ESL Test for Educator Licensure (MTL).

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementR. HornsbyRestrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.X.ELL-416 Language Assessment and Classroom PracticeFall and Spring. Credits: 3

This course provides an introduction to theory and practice in assessing multilingual students' academic English proficiency and content knowledge. Students will learn about purposes of and types of language and content assessments for multilingual students (e.g., large-scale standardized tests like WIDA ACCESS, alternative assessments like portfolios, formative assessments) and practice designing assessment tasks and using rubrics to evaluate student writing. Students will learn to distinguish between assessing content knowledge and language proficiency and how to apply assessment findings to their teaching practice.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution RequirementR. HornsbyX.ELL-418 Second Language Acquisition and Classroom PracticeCredits: 2

This course will a) introduce students to theories of second language acquisition (cognitive, social, and linguistic influences) and how these inform teaching practices, and b) introduce teaching methods and approaches to teaching ELLs so students can begin to make informed context-sensitive decisions about language teaching methods, techniques, lesson planning, materials, classroom management, etc.

Credits: 2*

This course surveys the etiology, diagnosis, and remediation of learning differences including dyslexia, attention deficit disorder, autism, as well as factors that influence a child's readiness to learn. Students present, discuss, question, and exchange ideas that contribute to an overall understanding of special education in the field. With an emphasis on inclusion in schools, students explore the impact of current policies, assessments, and practices. Students will have the opportunity to examine and practice applying interventions and approaches that support student engagement and prosocial behavior. The focus is on adapting the learning environment, classroom structures, and teaching approach so that all children, regardless of learning strengths and needs are supported to reach their potential and achieve meaningful goals.

X.SPED-495 Independent Study

Fall and Spring. Credits: 1 - 4

Students enrolled in this course collaborate with the instructor to further their learning in teacher leadership through advanced independent research or an academic project on a specific topic that is distinct from existing course offerings within the MATL program of study. Together they outline a series of academic activities and unique work products that the student generates throughout the semester to demonstrate learning. Some examples include: conducting in-depth research, developing programs or curriculum related to instructional leadership, mentoring, and coaching, writing comprehensive papers for presentation and/or publication in education journals.
