Master of Arts in Teaching

Overview and Contact Information

The Master of Arts in Teaching program (M.A.T.) is an accelerated gender-inclusive teacher education program for aspiring early childhood, elementary, middle, secondary, English Language Learners and Moderate Disabilities teachers. This flexible, year-long M.A.T. includes an innovative curriculum with a strong commitment to social justice and equity, a unique collaboration with EL Education, personalized advising, and initial teacher licensure in over 25 areas, including:

- Biology (8-12)
- Chemistry (8-12)
- Dance (All)
- Early Childhood (PreK2)
- Earth and Space Science (8-12)
- Elementary (1-6)
- English (5-12)
- English as a Second Language (ESL)/English Language Learners (ELL) (PreK-6; 5-12)
- Foreign Language (5-12)
- General Science (5-8)
- History (5-12)
- Mathematics (5-8; 8-12)
- Middle school: Humanities (5-12)
- Middle school: Mathematics/Science (5-8)
- Music: Vocal/Instrumental/General (All)
- Physics (8-12)
- Social Science (5-12)
- Teacher of Students with Moderate Disabilities (PreK-8; 5-12)
- Theatre (All)
- Visual Arts (PreK-8; 5-12)

Through the M.A.T. program, we also offer additional licensure options in:

- New level/subject area
- English as second language/English language learners (PreK-6, 5-12)
- Special Education/Moderate disabilities (PreK-8, 5-12)

These additional licensure options are specifically designed to provide opportunities for current students pursuing initial licensure to earn and independently apply for an Additional License in teaching English language learners or students with moderate disabilities or in teaching an additional level/subject area. These courses also provide a depth of knowledge for any students entering the broader field of education as they seek to work with a range of learners.

A customized course of study is available for students who are interested in teaching in independent schools; contact PaGE for more information.

Students in the M.A.T. program receive personalized advising to help them reach their academic and career goals. They work closely with a network of professionals including faculty advisors, supervising teachers, EL Education mentors, and a variety of content area experts.

Upon successful completion of the program, students are awarded the Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

M.A.T. Learning Goals

Graduates of the Master of Arts in Teaching at Mount Holyoke College will develop the ability to do the following:

1. Write and adapt well-developed lesson/unit plans to reach a range of learners in the PK12 classroom.
2. Design and administer a variety of student assessments, analyze student performance and growth, and use data to improve instruction and learning.
3. Integrate and apply research, theory, and pedagogy to inform instruction and interactions with students.
4. Have and apply insights on their teaching and learning, both individually and with colleagues, to improve practice and student learning.
5. Demonstrate a range of professional skills that respond to a deep understanding and application of the knowledge, skills, and dispositions found in the Guidelines for the Professional Standards for Teachers including:
   a. Curriculum, Planning, and Assessment: Promotes the learning and growth of all students by providing high quality and coherent instruction, designing and administering authentic and meaningful student assessments, analyzing student performance and growth data, using this data to improve instruction, providing students with constructive feedback on an on-going basis, and continuously refining learning objectives.
   b. Teaching All Students: Promotes the learning and growth of all students through instructional practices that establish high expectations, create a safe and effective classroom environment, and demonstrate cultural proficiency.
   c. Family and Community Engagement: Promotes the learning and growth of all students through effective partnerships with families, caregivers, community members, and organizations.
   d. Professional Culture standard: Promotes the learning and growth of all students through ethical, culturally proficient, skilled, and collaborative practice.

Curriculum and Requirements
The M.A.T. with initial licensure is a 36-credit program that a full-time student can complete in one year from July through the following June. The Moderate Disabilities program is a 38-credit program that students can also complete in 12 months.

Coursework for the M.A.T. is delivered in four sessions: summer, fall, January, and spring. Students are expected to maintain a B grade in all courses.

While the M.A.T. is designed to be a continuous one year program, part-time students can complete requirements at their own pace over two years, although they will eventually need to complete the program's capstone: a full-time, semester-long teaching practicum. Students will work with an advisor to design an approved plan to complete program requirements.

Course Offerings
This course listing contains all graduate courses with subjects X.EDUC, X.ELL, and X.SPED including those intended for other graduate programs. Courses from other subjects, such as X.MATH, may also apply to your program. Please contact your advisor if you are unsure of courses that are appropriate for your program.

X.EDUC-406 TESOL Seminar: Foundations of Effective Teaching
Not Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2
This is the first of a two-course TESOL program designed to provide participants with a foundation of practical pedagogy, linguistic knowledge, and classroom experience to prepare for a job as an English language instructor in an intercultural environment. The course includes lecture and discussion, materials development sessions, and teaching workshops. Participants will develop a teaching portfolio for use in their job search and receive a certificate of completion if they successfully complete both the seminar and practicum courses.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
The department

X.EDUC-411 Policy Fluency: Current Issues in Education
Spring. Credits: 4
In this learning experience, teachers will work on building up their "education policy fluency" based on their own school context. Students will read education news from across the country, including Education Week and blogs from a range of teacher and education bloggers with varied perspectives. Then they will dig into deeper understanding through weekly dialogue with each other and article authors and current teacher leader experts in the field. This course aims to help teachers gain an even stronger understanding of the policy world that influences what we do in the classrooms, in both public and private school settings.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
E. Schilide
Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.
X.EDUC-413 Leading Colleagues Using Research: Bridging the Gap Between Research and Practice
Spring. Credits: 2
Based on Domain 2 of the Teacher Leader Model Standards, this class helps build the skills, knowledge, and dispositions teacher leaders need to support colleagues in using the latest research and data to improve practice and student learning. Topics will explore the integration of research process, the skills teacher leaders need to lead colleagues in using research to improve practice, research competencies, action research, data collection and analysis, and how research makes instruction intentional and systematic, and how it allows us to make meaning out of numbers.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
G. Bass, D. Bosso
Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.

X.EDUC-414 Research Design for Educators
Spring. Credits: 1
This course provides an introduction to research methodology and design in applied educational contexts. Topics covered in this course include: ethical considerations in educational research, how to conduct comprehensive literature searches, measurement and interpretation of qualitative and quantitative data, and research report writing. Through this course, students will explore the research process from hypothesis development and literature review to publication. At the conclusion of this course, students will be prepared to develop and incorporate the elements of effective research designs into their own research projects.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
G. Bass, J. Holland

X.EDUC-417 Teaching With Technology
Credits: 2
Students read current research examining the effectiveness of teaching with technology in PreK-12 classrooms as they explore questions about the role of technology in 21st century education. Students will experiment with a variety of tools that allow teachers to design effective lessons for a diverse range of learners. Students will focus on using technology to integrate students on IEPs, 504, and other learners with specific learning needs.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
L. Manzi

X.EDUC-419 Independent Schools: New Teachers Seminar Practice
Credits: 2
This course helps new independent school teachers answer questions that all teachers ask themselves on a daily basis: How do we best serve our students and their learning needs, across the multiple dimensions of learning styles, ethnicity, race, gender and class? As we design an experience to welcome and engage all of our students, how do we also nourish and sustain ourselves in this important work? The course includes cohort meetings as well as time for reflection, designing lesson plans, exploring how we organize our classrooms, and discussing how we support ourselves and each other.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
The department
Instructor permission required.

X.EDUC-420 Human Development

X.EDUC-420AD Human Development: 'Adolescent Development'
Credits: 2
In this course students will develop a foundational framework of knowledge about physical, cognitive and social/emotional development that can inform their teaching practice in the classroom. Through individualized exploration, students will have opportunities to delve into the study of the age group that they intend to teach, and the class will discuss specific topics particularly relevant to education, such as language development, gender, moral development, the nature of intelligence, and motivation. By the end of this course, students should be conversant in developmental theory and able to use it to support the pedagogical choices they will make as educators.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
A. Grillo

X.EDUC-420CD Human Development: 'Child Development'
Credits: 2
In this course students will develop a foundational framework of knowledge about physical, cognitive and social/emotional development that can inform their teaching practice in the classroom. Students will have opportunities to delve into the study of the age group that they intend to teach (preK-8th grade) through individualized exploration, and the class will discuss specific topics particularly relevant to education, such as language development, gender, moral development, the nature of intelligence, and motivation. By the end of this course, students should be conversant in developmental theory and able to use it to support the pedagogical choices they will make as educators.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
A. Grillo

X.EDUC-422 Practicum Seminar on Teaching and Learning: Early Childhood and Elementary Education
Spring. Credits: 4
The Integrated Methods Seminar focuses on supporting and building on key aspects of the intensive full-time supervised student teaching experience. Teacher candidates learn how to develop integrated curriculum units, address complex behavioral and management issues with increasing sophistication, delve more deeply into theory and practice, develop peer coaching and mentoring skills, develop habits of reflection, and prepare for job interviews. Additionally, there is an emphasis on social studies content and pedagogy. Specifically, students will be studying content of a meaningful elementary and early childhood social studies curriculum and devising lessons and units that address multiple learning needs, planning effective and aligned assessments, infusing EL protocols and practices, and exploring integration opportunities. Linking critical learning from their work in social justice to issues of instructional equity and practice in the classroom is also part of the Seminar this semester.
Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
C. Swift
Restrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students only
X.EDUC-423 Student Teaching in Early Childhood and Elementary Schools
Spring. Credits: 10
Students participate in full-time student teaching in early childhood and elementary classrooms for 20 weeks. During this semester-long field-based placement, students hone classroom management skills, implement an extended integrated curriculum unit, deliver lessons in all content areas, and develop a wide range of assessment skills. The practicum culminates in two weeks of Lead Teaching, during which the student is responsible for managing all aspects of the classroom program. Students work with classroom teachers and program supervisors to address Professional Teaching Standards as required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
*Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
R. Hornsby
*Restrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students only
*Advisory: Students may only register for X.EDUC-423 if concurrently taking X.EDUC-422.
*Notes: 5 days a week for 20 weeks full-time student teaching in school site (includes Mount Holyoke College’s spring break). This course is graded on a credit/no credit basis.

X.EDUC-424 Internship in Educational Settings
Spring. Credits: 4 - 10
Graduate students undertake a supervised internship from January through June in an educational setting comprised of up to 600 hours. This would be a supervised, mentored experience, and tailored to the hours of the student, approved by a faculty member within the Professional and Graduate Education department. Evaluation of performance is determined by on-site visits, written assignments, as well as supervisor and mentor evaluations. Successful completion of the course is verified based on satisfactory submission of a final product/portfolio and presentation that demonstrates an integration of knowledge and skills gained through their program of study and internship experience.
*Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
R. Hornsby
*Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.
*Instructor permission required.
*Advisory: For graduate students who will not be pursuing licensure.
*Notes: This course is graded on a credit/no credit basis.

X.EDUC-426 TESOL Practicum: Effective Teaching Strategies Field Experience
Not Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 2
This is the second of a two-course TESOL program designed to provide participants with the experience to prepare to be an effective English language instructor in an intercultural environment. In this practicum, students will hone their classroom management skills, implement curricular units and deliver lessons designed to support students’ language acquisition, and develop assessment skills. Students will submit curriculum plans, videotaped lessons, and complete written assignments and reflections. Participants will develop a teaching portfolio for use in their job search and receive a certificate of completion if they successfully complete both the seminar and practicum courses.
*Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
The department
*Prereq: X.EDUC-406.

X.EDUC-430 The Process of Teaching and Learning in Secondary and Middle Schools
Fall. Credits: 4
This course is intended to help prepare prospective secondary and middle school teachers for effective classroom instruction. The focus of this course is to explore a range of philosophies of education and existing classroom practices. The course uses the current educational landscape in order for teacher candidates to examine culturally relevant teaching and learning practices, teaching in multicultural settings, establishing the classroom climate, choosing instructional approaches, and attending to the needs of a range of learners.
*Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
*Other Attribute(s): Community-Based Learning
H. Brown
*Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.

X.EDUC-431 Student Teaching in Secondary and Middle Schools
Spring. Credits: 10
Students participate in full-time student teaching in middle or secondary classrooms for 20 weeks. During this semester-long field-based placement, students hone classroom management skills, design and implement curriculum, and develop a wide range of assessment skills. Students work with classroom teachers and college supervisors to address Professional Teaching Standards as required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
*Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
R. Hornsby
*Restrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students only
*Advisory: Students may only register for X.EDUC-431 if concurrently taking X.EDUC-433.
*Notes: 5 days a week for 20 weeks; full-time student teaching in school sites (includes Mount Holyoke College’s spring break). Credit/no credit grading.

X.EDUC-433 Practicum Seminar on Teaching and Learning: Middle and Secondary Education
Spring. Credits: 4
This weekly seminar provides students with opportunities to design and discuss case studies involving adolescents in middle and secondary school settings, review researched-based models of instruction, and classroom management, and engage in dialogue with professionals regarding numerous aspects of teaching and student learning. Additional topics covered include reviewing the legal obligations of teachers, addressing the needs of students with disabilities, English language learners, and developing effective communication between home and school.
*Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
H. Brown
*Restrictions: This course is limited to Mount Holyoke MAT students only

X.EDUC-441 Fostering a Collaborative Culture for Learning
Credits: 2
This course is centered around Domain One of the Teacher Leader Model Standards, with an emphasis on creating cultures in our schools that support educator development and student learning. Modules include defining teacher leadership, exploring formal and informal teacher leadership roles, adult learning theory, facilitation of group learning and discussion, mitigating difficult discussions and building consensus, organizational change and the change process, building trust, and other skills to create inclusive cultures for professional growth (and student learning!).
*Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement
N. Gardner
*Restrictions: This course is offered for graduate students only.
X.EDUC-443 Introduction to the Orton-Gillingham Approach to Reading and Dyslexia

Not Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 1
This course is an introduction to the Orton-Gillingham approach—a systematic, structured, multisensory approach for teaching reading. In this course, participants will explore instructional methods to teach the hows and whys of reading to struggling readers, particularly those with dyslexia. In the course, participants will also review the history of reading and the English language, current research, and common reading assessments. Students who complete this course are eligible to apply for membership in the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators (AOGPE) as a Subscriber member.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

The department

X.EDUC-446 Orton-Gillingham Associate Level Course

Not Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 4
This course is designed for practitioners and educators working with students of all ages and abilities. It includes an overview of the history of reading and the English language, research and assessments related to reading and language-based learning disabilities, and multisensory approaches to teach students with language-based learning disabilities. This course presents the Orton-Gillingham approach—a systematic, structured, multisensory method for teaching students with language-based learning disabilities. Through interactive lessons, lectures, group work, modeled lessons, students will learn and practice this approach.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

The department

X.EDUC-448 Orton-Gillingham Associate Level Course Practicum

Not Scheduled for This Year. Credits: 4
This course is designed for practitioners and educators working with students of all ages and abilities. This course develops participants’ knowledge of the Orton-Gillingham approach—a systematic, structured, multisensory method for teaching students with language-based learning disabilities. Students will engage in a 100 hour supervised practicum, during which they develop and implement lessons with supervision provided by the instructor. At the conclusion of this practicum, students are eligible to apply for their Orton-Gillingham certification.

Applies to requirement(s): Meets No Distribution Requirement

The department

Advisory: Successful completion of, or concurrent enrollment in, X.EDUC-446 Orton-Gillingham Associate Level Course.

X.EDUC-449 Equity and Social Justice: A Teacher's Role

Credits: 2
In this course, participants will learn to address issues of social justice seamlessly and incorporate social justice into the design of their learning environments. This will be accomplished in three steps: First, participants will be assigned a self-awareness partner to process socialization around social issues. Second, participants will produce narratives about their social justice development. Finally, participants will create action plans that will create learning environments that don't shut down dialogues about difference, but open them up. Participants will then take this new learning and self-awareness and apply it to education systems outside of their classroom.

X.EDUC-469 Models of Entrepreneurship in Education
Spring. Credits: 1
Today’s challenges in education require creative, out-of-the-box ideas and entrepreneurial teachers are often best positioned to design and implement these solutions. In this course we will explore different models of entrepreneurship in education, including how it works within the contexts of working in classrooms and schools, in nonprofits, as authors and consultants, and in commercial endeavors. Through case studies and guest lectures students investigate entrepreneurial approaches to address existing problems, challenges, and opportunities in education. Students will develop their own ideas around new programming, services, advocacy, and/or ways to increase access to education.

X.EDUC-470 The Process of Teaching and Learning: Developing Math/Science/Technology Instruction and Curriculum
Fall. Credits: 4
Students will learn about inquiry-based science/math curriculum and use of technology in PreK-6 classroom. They will construct more extensive understandings of science/math instruction by developing lessons that implement the Massachusetts Frameworks incorporating the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics. They will teach a minimum of three lessons to students in their pre-practicum setting. Emphasis will be on learning diverse management and instructional practices, such as the use of manipulatives, problem solving, cooperative learning, and project-based learning. Students will also become more adept at developing effective approaches to using assessment to guide instruction.

X.EDUC-476 Independent School: Beyond the Classroom
Credits: 2
The independent school faculty member wears many “hats” in addition to that of the teacher. Students in this course study the non-teaching aspects of independent school work, improving their ability to serve as stewards of their schools’ missions. Guest speakers from independent schools will address these roles and facilitate students’ investigation of other topics including school governance and administration, admissions, advancement, athletics, counseling, student and residential life, and more. Coursework will include analyzing case studies, budgets, interviewing various departments and jobs within an independent school, and an in-depth case study of the student’s context based on current independent school standards and best practices. Student work will culminate in the creation of a personal inventory and growth plan for successful career development in independent schools.

X.EDUC-481 Internship in Education Administration
Spring. Credits: 2 - 6
Graduate students undertake an internship of up to 500 hours in an educational setting under the supervision of an PreK-12 school administrator from January through June. This would be a supervised, mentored experience, that is tailored to the student's needs and interests, and approved by a faculty member within the Professional and Graduate Education department. Evaluation of performance is determined by on-site visits, written assignments, as well as supervisor and mentor evaluations. Successful completion of the course is verified based on satisfactory submission of a final product/portfolio and presentation that demonstrates an integration of knowledge and skills gained through their program of study and internship experience.

X.EDUC-489 Catapult! Capstone Course
Spring. Credits: 2 - 6
This course is designed to catapult students' professional and personal leadership journey to the next level. It serves as an idea incubator, helping give teacher leaders the support and direction they need to propel themselves forward in their work and launch teacher-created ideas to improve education for all students. In this class, graduate students will demonstrate and document the impact of their knowledge gained throughout their journey at Mount Holyoke College. Students will choose a domain of the Teacher Leader Model Standards to focus their capstone work, then they will choose one of four pathways for the semester: a research study, a teacher-created project, a teacher leader internship, or National Board candidacy. They will apply their skill and knowledge under a teacher leader coach, who will support them and engage in weekly reflective practice of their teacher leadership work. At the end of the semester, teachers will complete and share a portfolio that demonstrates how their experiential learning experience has enhanced their practice as a leader and a teacher leader.

X.SPED-426 The Inclusive Classroom
Credits: 2
This course surveys the etiology, diagnosis, and remediation of learning differences including dyslexia, attention deficit disorder, autism, as well as factors that influence a child’s readiness to learn. Students present, discuss, question, and exchange ideas that contribute to an overall understanding of special education in the field. With an emphasis on inclusion in schools, students explore the impact of current policies, assessments, and practices. Students will have the opportunity to examine and practice applying interventions and approaches that support student engagement and prosocial behavior. The focus is on adapting the learning environment, classroom structures, and teaching approach so that all children, regardless of learning strengths and needs are supported to reach their potential and achieve meaningful goals.
